

Dear Local Patron,

Autism Society Greater Pittsburgh, a newly incorporated affiliate of the Autism Society of America, is hosting its first ever Autumn Spectrum Festival on Sunday, October 4, 2026, from 2pm-6pm at the Buffalo Inn, South Park, Allegheny County. Our 1st Annual Autumn Spectrum Festival is designed to be a joyful, inclusive celebration of community, connection, and belonging in a supportive, autism-friendly environment. We will have a DJ and dancing, Fall activities, games, basket raffle, food, and more! You can learn more about our event by checking out our website at www.autismsocietygreaterpittsburgh.org.

The Autism Society Greater Pittsburgh is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to provide support, education, information, and social connection to all individuals on the Autism Spectrum, across the lifespan, and their families, throughout the Greater Pittsburgh region. We create connections, empowering everyone in the Autism community with the resources needed to live fully.

We are pleased to offer sponsorship opportunities for this event. Community partners like you help us bring events like Autumn Spectrum Festival to life and give us an opportunity to further our mission of providing a unique place of belonging and inclusion for those on the Autism Spectrum and their families.
